STATE LOSES MILLIONS BY STORM

San Francisco Reports Place Estimate at $3,000,000 Outside of R. R. Losses

ONLY MILLION DAMAGE SOUTH OF TEHACHAPI

Santa Barbara Heaviest Loser in South—North Flood—Swept—Traffic Halted

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—Sacramento dispatches state the weather is clearing and that all danger of storm apparently has passed. Both the Sacramento and San Joaquin rivers are at the flood stage, however. Coming cold weather in the mountains is expected to minimize the danger from the thaw.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 27.—The entire state is today just recovering from the floods. The Shasta limited from Portland is the first train from outside the state that has arrived here. Railroad men estimate the damage to the lines at $3,000,000. Other damage brings the state's loss to $5,000,000. Unprecedented snows have fallen in the Sierras. Flood danger in the Santa Clara and Pajaro valleys is subsiding.

Railways Blocked on Sierras
The Southern Pacific lines across the Sierras were paralyzed at noon yesterday by twenty feet of snow at the summit. The passes were blocked, but large forces of men made way for the passage of the first of twenty stalled trains at daybreak. No attempt has been made to operate trains below Pajaro on the coast line and a slide in River canyon has blocked the Western Pacific.

Fresno reports her low lying sections submerged, and that hundreds of men worked all night to prevent a break in the levee.
Sonora and Tuolumne counties are still isolated. Towns are under water and all the stores are flooded. The Sierra railway is not attempting to operate trains.

Steamer for R. R. Passengers
Chartered by the Southern Pacific, the Pacific Mail steamer Santa Clara left here at 2 o'clock this afternoon for San Luis Obispo, where she will pick up 175 storm-bound passengers and convey them to San Pedro. Returning, the steamer will stop at Santa Barbara to take aboard all stranded northbound passengers.

FLOOD CONDITIONS IN SAN JOAQUIN VALLEY

STOCKTON, Jan. 27.—The Delta reclamations in the lower San Joaquin Valley will pass the crisis to night or tomorrow. At 8 o'clock this morning the San Joaquin river registered nineteen and one-half feet at Lathrop, and is still rising. All the levees are holding but are being constantly patrolled. They have been strengthened with thousands of sacks of earth.

SOUTH OF TEHACHAPI LOSS IS ESTIMATED AT MILLION

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—After a clear morning, a second storm swept on Los Angeles at noon, accompanied by brief electric evidences. A torrential downpour of half an hour was followed by hail, changing to a steady downpour at 1 o'clock.

DAMAGE CONFINED TO ROADS AND BRIDGES

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27.—The storm damage south of the Tehachapi is estimated today to exceed one million dollars. Following torrential rains about midnight, the skies cleared throughout the southern end of the state, and it is believed the present storm has passed.

From reports gathered here Santa Barbara is the heaviest individual sufferer of any section in the state. The damage there is estimated to be $300,000, the damage being done to streets, bridges and buildings. Twenty houses were swept away in Montecito and the Mission creek districts. Two hundred Southern Pacific passengers have been stalled with no chance to move trains for several days.

Ventura county is reported to have suffered $200,000 loss on roads and other damage. The crops are generally safe.

Orange county is reported having sustained little actual damage. The Santa Ana river at Santa Ana is straining its banks today, but so far has been controlled. Anaheim reports no damage, and crops are safe. Fullerton is the center of railroad activity. All lines are using the Santa Fe branch to Colton. The peat lands are partially flooded.

Riverside county suffered little, although several bridges have been washed out. Only nominal damage was done in San Bernardino city, ex-

LABOR MAY FORM OWN PARTY IN ENGLAND

Annual Labor Party Conference in Great Britain Will Advocate the Plan

PROPOSE TO TAX LABOR PARLIAMENT MEMBERS

Want Minimum Wage, 8-Hour Day, Employment, Good Housing, Women's Votes

GLASGOW, Jan. 27.—A proposition to build up a separate and distinct electoral organization in all the industrial centers of England, entirely independent of the Labor party with which it is allied in Parliament, is one of the chief questions to be considered at the fourteenth annual conference of the Labor party of Great Britain which began a three days' session here today. If this recommendation of the executive committee should be adopted, it would mean a largely increased number of three-corner contests—Unionists, Liberal, and Labor—in the next general election, which will probably take place in 1915. The Labor party is pledged to work and vote with the Liberals in Parliament, but there is no obligation to refrain from putting up Labor candidates against Liberals at the polls.

In several recent by-elections in districts hitherto represented by Liberals, the Unionists have won because of the nomination for the first time of Labor candidates. Notwithstanding these defeats of the "government coalition" the Laborites argue that they are entirely justified in offering their own candidates, especially in constituencies where the population is overwhelmingly industrial.

Among other resolutions to be considered are: That Labor members of Parliament shall contribute to the party fund $250 out of their yearly salary of $2000; legislation for a general minimum wage, reduction of hours of labor to 48 per week, the prevention of unemployment, and the building of healthy homes for all workmen; and protests against forcible feeling and the proposed introduction of "the system of conscription as advocated by the National Service League."

It is possible that the party will reiterate its advocacy of suffrage for women on the same terms as that accorded men, and that it will take a strong stand against the international increase of armaments.

PANAMA CANAL ZONE UNDER NEW RULE

Wilson Orders Civil Government—Col. Goethals Soon to be Named Governor

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—President Wilson today issued a formal executive order establishing civil government in the Panama Canal zone. The naming of Col. Goethals as governor is expected to follow soon. Secretary of War Garrison said the announcement is certain to be made within a few days.

GOETHALS PREFERS GOTHAM'S POLICE COMMISSIONERSHIP

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Col. Goethals today replied as follows to a New York newspaper concerning his attitude toward Mayor Mitchell's offer of the police commissionership of New York:

"Assuming that I were free to choose after the completion of the Panama canal, I would accept the police commissionership, providing a change in the existing law be secured vesting the commissioner with the right to remove subordinates. I have served for thirty-four years in the army, and the President can authorize an officer's retirement after thirty years' service. I hope the President will grant this when I ask it."

VOLUMINOUS THAW BRIEF

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 27.—A voluminous brief in support of Harry K. Thaw's petition for discharge on a writ of habeas corpus from the custody of the officers now holding him for extradition to New York was filed in the federal court yesterday.

TWO EX-BANDITS GUIDES FOR MEXICAN GENERALS

Bandits and generals mix freely in the Mexican insurrection. Some of the bandits have become generals, like Pancho Villa, and some of the generals have become bandits. Here are shown two bandits, who, having grown tired of their work or found living easier, have joined forces with Huerta. On the left is the main guide of the soldiers led by General Trury Aubert. He was a wild man of the hills, making his living in much the same manner as did Jesse James and his band, though without exhibiting as much nerve or taking the chances of the Missourians. On the right is the guide who led the army of Huerta in the north. This is the army which has just been cut to pieces in Ojinaga. Its twelve generals, swearing to defend the last stand of the federalists in the north, skipped across the Rio Grande when General Villa arrived from Chihuahua.

was turned over to Coroner Winbiger. Rios was evidently cut off from escape before he realized his danger. When his shack in the creek bottom was undermined and the shack fell, he was pinned down and drowned. At 1 o'clock some mail for a south-bound Santa Fe was dispatched. A train is being run to San Juan Capistrano, where passengers and mail will be transferred to another train south of a washout.

The rainfall here last night was less than an inch, but with a heavy wind the storm was at its stormiest period. Orange county has been greatly benefited by the rains. Nothing more could have been asked by the ranchers of the county, except that now the splendid rains have fallen, fair weather would be greatly appreciated.

HUERTA'S FALL LOOKED FOR SOON

Embargo of Arms to be Raised—Carranza's Bitter Words—Huerta's Foes Slain

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—It is believed in official circles that Huerta's downfall is in sight. President Wilson is understood to have expressed this opinion to the cabinet last night. It is also stated that the President expects to soon announce the removal of the embargo prohibiting rebels shipping arms across the border. It is believed this will be effective, as General Carranza has now waiting at the border thousands of rifles and much ammunition.

The President discussed the Japanese-Mexican situation with his cabinet. It is reported that he is personally displeased with Foreign Minister Makino's recent utterances on the situation. It is expected the administration will take cognizance of the minister's attitude.

PLOTTERS AGAINST LIFE OF HUERTA ARE EXECUTED

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 27.—That Fernando Gonzales and five others, suspected of a plot to assassinate Provisional President Huerta, have been secretly executed was reported today. Huerta is said to have personally ordered the execution of all concerned in the plot. Today's developments indicate that the plot was near fruition. Huerta was up all night receiving reports and directing subordinates.

CARRANZA IS BITTER TOWARDS UNITED STATES

CULIACAN, Sonora (Via Nogales, Ariz.), Jan. 27.—"If there is to be a provisional president of Mexico, I will name him." This was the declaration of General Carranza, leader of the constitutionalists, in his first public speech since leaving the American border where he conferred with William Bayard Hale. His speech showed bitterness toward the American administration, particularly for the failure to lift the embargo on arms. He declared that nations and individuals are ready with suggestions regarding the conduct of affairs in Mexico, but are not ready to furnish tangible assistance when possible. He declared that the American government had discriminated in favor of Huerta and had

WILSON CONFERS WITH SENATE BODY

Foreign Relations Committee Hears Inwardness of Mexican Affairs

HUERTA LOSES SUPPORT OF CATHOLICS AND POWERS

Must Soon Fall—President Favors New Treaty With Japan, Also Tolls Arbitration

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—President Wilson and members of the foreign relations committee of the Senate held an important conference last night on the external affairs of the government.

The discussion covered numerous subjects of pressing moment, including: The Mexican situation. The controversy with Japan. The revolution in Hayti. The conventions with Europe and Japan, extending the arbitration treaties of 1868. The Panama canal tolls dispute with Great Britain. The treaty extending a financial protectorate over Nicaragua. The peace treaties Mr. Bryan has signed with the smaller foreign nations.

The Conclusions

With respect to Mexico the President made it clear he is decidedly optimistic as to the prospective results of his policy of "watchful waiting." He says that while the conference of John Lind and Huerta representatives as to Huerta's resignation, have come to naught, yet the fact that the Catholic party is no longer solidly behind Huerta, and Huerta's isolation by the foreign powers depriving him of sources of revenue, are bound to force his retirement.

As to Japan, the President hopes to end the present deadlock by a new treaty applying the conventional restrictions to Americans in Japan as to Japanese in America.

Arbitration of the Panama tolls question between Great Britain and the United States is favored by the President, a commission from the two nations interested to be the arbitrating board. He hopes for the ratification of treaties with smaller nations now pending in the Senate. He especially desires the ratification of the Nicaraguan treaty in order to legalize the situation in Nicaragua, where U. S. marines have been in occupation of the capital since Taft's administration. The Senators, while not favorable altogether, will probably meet his desires.

The President said he could not consistently recognize the expected new government in Hayti if the revolution succeeds. A financial protectorate over Hayti similar to that of Santo Domingo has been proposed, but the president is opposed to it.

The conference followed the dining of the committee with the President and lasted for two hours. It is believed this interview will obviate any public discussion of Mexico or Japan, as the Senate will now have a better understanding of the situation.

EX-CONGRESSMAN UNDER U. S. SMUGGLING CHARGE

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Lucius N. and William Littauer, brothers, the former at one time a member of congress, have been indicted by the federal grand jury, charged with smuggling into this country a diamond necklace valued at $40,000. The defendants are glove manufacturers of Gloversville, N. Y.

BRYAN FATHERING BIG INTERNATIONAL CANAL

OTTAWA, Jan. 27.—That Secretary of State Bryan and Senator Townsend of Michigan are fathering a project for a great international deep waterway for ocean-going ships from Duluth to Montreal, involving the further deepening of St. Lawrence canals, has been ascertained, following the publication of Washington dispatches saying that such a project was on foot. C. A. McGrath, the leading Canadian member of the joint international commission, admitted the plan is being considered.

CHAS. E. POTTS IS UNDER ARREST FOR WIFE MURDER

Potts, a collector, was arrested yesterday afternoon at 1415 Calumet street, by Deputy Sheriff Bradfield and Wright, on a telegraphic warrant from Sheriff Welsh of Grant county, Ore. He was placed in the county jail and will be taken to Oregon to stand trial, upon the receipt of a requisition from the governor of the northern state.

JOHN FRYE WHO DIED HERE WAS NEPHEW OF PONY EXPRESS RIDER

John Frye, who lived at 611 Hickey street and who died here a few weeks ago, was the nephew of John Frye, the pony express rider, concerning whose exploits as a rider an article was published in the Register, copied from an eastern paper, last week. The Santa Ana John Frye was only a year old when his uncle made the first ride of the famous pony express.

The article had an unusual interest for Supervisor H. E. Smith of Santa Ana, for he knew Johnny Frye, the rider, well. Before the war Smith lived at Granada, Kan., one of the stations where Frye changed horses, and Smith often helped him in changing his mounts.

"Johnny Frye became an Union Army scout," said the supervisor today, "and was a member of Gen. Blunt's bodyguard. I had always heard that he was killed by Quantrill in his attack on Gen. Blunt's body."

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Thee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF, ACHING JOINTS

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Oil" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia, Limber up! Get a 25 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

ORANGE COUNTY HAS ADDED 1459 NAMES TO STATE PETITION

guard at Baxter Springs, Kan. The man who told me was told by a man who was there. The story was that Johnny Frye had fired the last shot from his two pistols and then with a knife in his hand rushed at the enemy, and fell.

John Frye, the Santa Ana, often worked for Supervisor Smith, but the supervisor knew nothing of the relationship to his old friend, the pony express rider, until today.

WOMEN AND WET FEET

—Cold and wet feet are a dangerous combination, especially to women, who are more prone to kidney disease than men. Congested kidneys come from a cold, and backache, rheumatism, urinary irregularities and rheumatic forms are not unusual results. Foley Kidney Pills restore the regular and normal action of the kidneys and bladder, and so remove the cause of the trouble. It is an honest and curative medicine that always gives results.—Wingood's Drug Store.

"LOWER UTILITIES COMMISSION" SUGGESTED

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 27.—To prevent the "riding of a free horse to death," Illinois' new public utilities commission has found it necessary to limit the number of complaints that may be made to it. It was announced today that a ruling which will define the nature of the complaints it will receive, will be issued in the near future. Whether it will take refuge behind some system similar to that by which the high courts escape endless inquiries and pleas, by establishing a subordinate commission, or tribunal which will decide the worthiness of a petition to be received, has not yet been determined, but this is thought by some to be the only solution for the problem.

There is scarcely a city in the state, it has been discovered, that has not on file a score or more of old-standing squabbles with utilities companies, and some which offer quarrels between competing concerns. All have availed themselves of the opportunity offered by the new utilities law, and the commission today is literally deluged. Under the law creating the commission there is no limitation on the number or kind of petition that may be filed, and some of the commissioners are not yet sure how far they may go in their restrictive rulings.

UNEMPLOYED SEEK REFORMS

CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 27.—Demands for many reforms tending toward amelioration of the conditions of the unemployed of the United States were made here by speakers at the annual convention of the National Brotherhood Welfare Association, which opened here this morning. Dr. James Eads Howe, the "millionaire hobo," is in charge of the convention. Resolutions presented by the Missouri delegation were adopted, providing for demands to be made upon congress that the United States furnish employment at all seasons and that transportation to the place of employment be paid out of Uncle Sam's pocket.

ORANGE COUNTY HAS ADDED 1459 NAMES TO STATE PETITION

Yesterday Orange county supporters of the anti-prize fight initiative petition completed their work on the supplemental petition, and County Clerk Williams sent by registered mail a statement showing 1459 names added to the petition through the campaign conducted here during the last ten days.

S. J. Jackson, who headed the movement, declares that there is now little question but that the measure will be submitted to the people for a vote. It was found by the secretary of state that 2500 additional names would be needed, and all over the state wherever a county had not already filed a supplemental petition the work of gathering the needed signatures was undertaken.

Orange county did excellent work, and supplied a large proportion of the names. It is estimated in Los Angeles that several hundred more signatures have been secured than were actually needed.

SAYS AMERICA IS IDEAL FOR WORLDS CAPITAL LOCATION

Leader of World Conscience Movement Sees This as Logical Center of the Peace Administration

PARIS, Jan. 27.—Hendrick C. Anderson, the American sculptor now here in the interest of the "World Conscience" movement, a society for the creation of a "World-Center," a great and magnificent city to house international interests and united peoples and nations for the attainment of peace and progress upon broad humanitarian lines, is coming more and more to favor the Atlantic coast of the United States as the site of the future capital of the world. Throughout Europe rulers have met him more than half way and offered him encouragement, volunteering promises of co-operation, while the American government has requested its foreign ambassadors, ministers and other agents to extend to Mr. Anderson, as the originator of the "World-Center" idea, every possible courtesy.

The limited deluxe edition of Anderson's book explaining the objects of the new city, gotten out at his own expense for private circulation only, is practically exhausted, government officials all over the world having received copies. One was sent to Vice-President Marshall of the United States, for the Senate's perusal. In a letter by Anderson to Vice-President Marshall, which the latter authorizes to be published, Anderson says of his motives in giving nine

WOULD REDUCE THE COST OF LIVING

Postoffice Department Works on Methods to Enhance Parcel Post Aid

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Experts of the postoffice department and the department of agriculture are at work on a series of investigations which they believe will accomplish more toward reducing the cost of living than anything that has yet been proposed.

Their experiments contemplate the use of the parcel post in the transportation of commodities of all kinds, including living, directly from the producer to the consumer.

There are two phases of the plan which they are working out for increasing the usefulness of the parcel post in this way. The first of these is to evolve more satisfactory containers for eggs, butter, vegetables and other farm products desired to be sent directly from the farm to the individual kitchen by way of the parcel post. The second and more important step to be taken in carrying out their policy is the development of a comprehensive system for disseminating information to consumers as to where they can purchase within accessible distances the articles they need without going to the middleman, and also to the producer, information as to the exact locations of individual markets for his products.

A problem, the solution of which bears directly on the success of both phases of this plan is what experts call the "standardization of supply."

The dissemination of information as to the location of individual markets for individual farmers is to be undertaken by the postoffice department.

The office of markets is in charge of Charles J. Brand, who is superintending the investigation looking toward the evolution of commodity containers especially adapted to parcel post transportation. Mr. Brand's investigation in regard to new types of egg containers practically has been completed.

IOWA'S HOSTS TO MEET IN GREATEST PICNIC OF YEAR

In the old days it was said that all roads lead to Rome. Here it is said that on Iowa day all roads lead to Eastlake Park, Los Angeles, and that "everybody's goin'." Anyone who has ever seen the happy throngs that go that way on the Iowa picnic day can readily believe it.

The Iowa day is Washington's birthday, February 22—better known here as "Iowa Day," but as this falls on Sunday this year the picnic will be held Saturday, the 21st, for 1914. As Eastlake Park is the only place large enough to accommodate them it will be held there as usual.

What Cures Eczema?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, can be relied upon. We would not make this statement unless we were sure of it—and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves hesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

WHIMS OF THE AIR

Curious and Rapid Changes In the Velocity of the Wind.

HOLES IN THE ATMOSPHERE.

These Danger Spots, From the Aviators' Viewpoint, Are Born of the Almost Instantaneous Variations in the Force of the Aerial Currents.

Since man has provided himself with wings he has learned more astonishing things about the air than were dreamed of in his old philosophy. He has had to learn them in order to make traveling safe on his new aerial high-way. The wind was almost a complete mystery until aeronauts began to make close acquaintance with its strange moods and vagaries. The startling experiences of aviators have stimulated the aerometrists—i. e., the wind measurers—to fresh investigations, which have had surprising results.

Consider, for instance, these things which have been found out by the Aerotechnic Institute of the University of Paris:

If two anemometers (wind measurers) are placed side by side about seventy-two feet above the ground when a wind of from thirty-three to forty-eight feet per second is blowing the most remarkable differences in the velocity of the wind are observed. If the anemometers are only ten inches apart both usually show nearly the same wind velocity, but if the distance between them is increased to about thirty-two inches one will sometimes show a wind velocity of ten feet per second more rapid than that shown by the other. But this difference lasts only for an instant. If the distance between the anemometers is increased to twenty-three or twenty-four feet, the usual length of an aeroplane, the differences in the velocity of the wind shown by them are occasionally enormous, but of very brief duration. This must clearly produce a racking effect upon an aeroplane, which may be disastrous, for one end of it may for a second or so experience a resistance double that felt at the other end.

But this is by no means all. Not only does the wind vary in this capricious fashion at places a few feet or a few yards apart, but it varies with equal violence and suddenness at the same point, as is proved by fixing a single anemometer at a height of seventy-five or eighty feet above the ground and observing the successive changes in its indications of velocity. Thus it has been found that a wind whose average velocity was about thirty-eight feet per second maintained that velocity for as much as ten successive seconds and then in a second and a half dropped to less than fourteen feet per second, which it maintained during two seconds, after which in the course of half a second it sprang up to a velocity of fifty feet per second! It maintained the last mentioned velocity for only a single second.

In another case the velocity of the wind rose in three-quarters of a second from twenty-six and one-quarter feet to fifty-seven and one-half feet per second.

Considering these facts, it is no wonder that aviators meet with strange accidents by running into what they call "holes in the air," for the sustaining force of the air, on account of the sudden variations of the wind, may almost instantly lose half its value and then with equal suddenness recover, or more than recover, its former power. Such things enable any one to understand the peculiar perils that the aviator has to face. Even ordinary mortals know that the wind is capricious, but to the navigator of the air it becomes sometimes a very demon, or a legion of demons, whose eccentric gambolings are so uncontrollable as they are unexpected.

It took thousands of years for seamen to learn how to face with undimmed hearts the vagaries of the ocean waves and currents and for shipbuilders to devise vessels that could defy them, but it seems likely that we in a few decades shall have mastered the caprices of the atmosphere and have produced airships that will safely ride the wildest wind.

It is the advance of science that has given us the great advantage which we possess over our predecessors in overcoming nature's obstacles, but increase of knowledge would not have served us if there had been decrease of courage. That there has been no such decrease is proved every day by the daring feats of aviators.—Garrett P. Serviss in New York Journal.

One Way to Clean Windows.
There are so many "best" ways to clean windows that one hesitates to offer her method unless very sure it is the way. Three or four ounces of emery flour in a heavy canvas sack about six inches square will clean and polish windows with greater ease than anything else I know. Simply rub the bag over the window. It also removes streaks from any glass.—Women's Home Companion.

Bells of Bruges.
The famous peal of bells in the belfry at Bruges is played on the principle of a music box, with an enormous drum weighing 2,000 pounds. In the drum are 80,000 holes for brass pegs which touch the trackers and move the wires communicating with the bell hammers. The air is changed once each year, but the drum must be wound up every two hours.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 27.—An attempt was made to wreck the Iron Mountain fast mail this morning. The train was stopped as it bumped into fifteen ties piled on the tracks at Carbondale Park.

CALIFORNIA HAS GROWN A BUMPER CROP OF ORANGES

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—After three years of disappointments, Pacific coast citrus fruit growers this year have produced a bumper crop, according to a recent statement made by E. O. McCormick, vice-president of the Southern Pacific railroad. This year's crop of oranges alone, according to Mr. McCormick, will be sufficient to provide at least fifteen oranges for every person in the United States.

Estimates at present place the California shipments at 40,000 cars, more than double that of a year ago and more than has been sent east in any year in the life of the industry. The 40,000 cars would average 400 boxes each, and every box would contain between 90 and 100 oranges, making approximately a billion and a half of oranges shipped.

WASHINGTON WILL SURE GO "DRY," SAYS MAYOR HINDLEY

SPOKANE, Jan. 27.—Mayor Hindley predicted today that the state of Washington will go dry at next election by 20,000. The prediction followed returns from Tacoma, where the mayors of eleven cities conferred. He declared that the country districts will offset the "wet" votes of the cities.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Your Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy,
Beautiful

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that all you really can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

WHY BOYS GO WRONG

DAYTON, O., Jan. 27.—"Bad boys make bad girls," said Judge Roland W. Baggott of the juvenile court here in talking of a new movement for a home for working boys, which he started here today. "A boy can't grow up to decent manhood on starvation wages of $5 or $6 a week any more than a girl can. And there are many homeless boys in this city and in other cities, who are not making any more than that. Boys, like girls, get discouraged over the hopeless struggle and enter a life of crime. We've interested several good men in a movement to build a home where working boys on small wages can secure board and lodging at a minimum of $1.75 a week. Our plan is for fifty men to give $100 apiece each year for five years and build the home."

Judge Baggott, who has a reputation of "always starting something," recently refused to send girls cited for delinquency to the state school for girls at Delaware, stating their chances of reformation are vastly better in some good institutional school.

As a result of a meeting yesterday of seventeen stockholders of the insolvent Orange County Mutual Building and Loan Association, Attorney H. C. Head was employed by those stockholders to represent them in the settlement of the affairs of the association.

INTERESTINGLY SIGNIFICANT

The Register has republished from the Los Angeles Tribune an account of the secret Republican reorganization meeting at Riverside last Thursday night, eliminating the sarcasm and bitterness, confining the reprint to the facts. This paper has also published the official record given in Hichborn's History of the Legislature, of State Senator E. A. Wright of San Diego, who was elected president of the Federation formed at the Riverside meeting, and herewith we give in part (again eliminating the sarcasm) an editorial review of the Riverside meeting by the conservative Progressive paper, the Riverside Press:

It seemed like old times for this gathering of the clans to be secret. That was the way business was done in the "good old days" when "pussy foot" methods prevailed. In striking contrast to this session behind closed doors was the recent gathering of Progressives in this city when all in sympathy with the movement were invited to the dinner and the speaking which followed. The two methods of procedure are characteristic of the old regime and the new movement in the political life of the state.

There was another striking difference between the two gatherings. At the Progressive Conference women as well as men were present, and one of the speakers of the evening was a woman. The recognition of the political equality of the women was to be expected from the progressives because that party in the nation as well as the state is committed to equal suffrage. The "stand patters" who assembled here Thursday night, however, did not invite the women to take part in their councils; and that is not strange either, because most of the men who were present were strongly opposed to giving women the ballot and voted against the equal suffrage amendment. If the women of the state had relied on that element for enfranchisement, they would still be waiting for it.

The keynote of the gathering was "anything to beat Johnson." That was to be expected from a crowd most of whom opposed the governor in 1910, and supported Wilson for president in 1912. There was no recognition of the remarkable achievements of the present reform administration, and no comprehension, apparently, of the new conditions which have developed in the political life of the people in the last few years. The sole aim of these men who are seeking to "re-organize" the Republican party seems to be to turn back the clock to the point where it was when Hiram Johnson began to go up and down the state and rouse the public conscience to the necessity for a change.

The personnel of the gathering was interesting. Here are some of the men who have a place in the list of temporary or permanent officers: Leroy A. Wright of San Diego, the worst reactionary in the State Senate, the man who has fought practically every one of the great measures of social and political reform which have been put on the statute books by the present administration and which have made California an inspiration for all who are working for the rights of the common people.

Phil A. Stanton of Los Angeles, who was speaker of the Assembly by grace of the old machine and who was the Los Angeles Times candidate for governor in 1910, put forward as a "reformer" to divert votes from Johnson in Southern California.

Leo Youngworth of Los Angeles, named as federal marshal by the old machine and always a loyal lieutenant for Walter Parker in the days of his power.

E. B. Collier of Corona, who is well known in this country as the political understudy of the notorious politician, Matt Findley, and who, as member of the Assembly, was one of the most subservient agents of the old corporation machine.

J. L. Matthews of Covina, postmaster by favor of Congressman McLachlan, correspondent of the Los Angeles Times, an unwavering supporter of the "organization" regime in Los Angeles county.

That will be just as "samples." Among the others present were: Steve Kelly, postmaster and political boss of San Bernardino; R. C. Harbison of the San Bernardino Sun, Kelly's right-hand man and one of the most consistent reactionaries in the state; J. W. Morrison of Orange, who was given a fat job with the fish and game commission on orders from Walter Parker and whose duties consisted in hunting for delegates in Orange county, who would take orders from the machine; Postmaster Hirsch of Long Beach, a bitter opponent of the reform movement in the state; and E. W. Nutter of Redlands, another loyal lieutenant of Kelly and generally useful to the old organization.

Reading down through the list makes one think he is reviewing a line of political ghosts who have been in "outer darkness" for the last three years, but who are now trying to "come back."

RACE BETTERMENT

If it is true, as H. G. Wells makes his hero declare in one of his recent novels, that there is a collective mind apart and distinct from individual intelligence, then it must be admitted that the social intelligence of today is concerned as never before with the future and with the good of coming generations. Of this, the Conference on Race Betterment, just held at Battle Creek, Mich., is a striking illustration. Whatever one may think of the individual views expressed, or of the immediate, concrete results of such gatherings, says The Journal of the American Medical Association, the fact is in itself significant that such a conference, extending over five days and attended by thousands of people, is possible. Never before in the history of civilization have there been so many men and women who were earnestly, sincerely and unselfishly laboring for the general good. One may criticize their reasoning, dissect their statistics or draw from their premises entirely different conclusions, but the important fact remains that such conferences, which are becoming increasingly frequent, would have been impossible and practically inconceivable a generation ago. The pessimist and the critic see in such gatherings only another symptom of universal unrest and discontent. The optimist sees in their faintly foreshadowed the dawning of the age of which Tennyson sang, when each man's good shall be all men's aim. The purpose of the Battle Creek conference, as officially stated, was "to assemble evidence as to the extent to which degenerative tendencies are actively at work in America and to promote agencies for race betterment." Under the first head were papers on apparent increase in degenerative diseases, the causes of the declining birth-rate, crime, deterioration of civilized women, factory development, alcohol and tobacco, social evil, and delinquent and defective children. On the constructive side were discussions on eugenics in many of its phases. The program impressed one as being overloaded on the degenerative side—possibly because of an overemphasis of the subject at the present time—and as too much given over to a discussion of the past and present conditions rather than of constructive plans for the future. The general effect left on the mind of the listener was that the many papers and addresses, most of them excellent in themselves, were not correlated and were written often from conflicting, if not contradictory points of view, while many of those in attendance impressed the careful observer as being earnest rather than informed, and zealous rather than discriminating. The impressive, undeniable fact, however, is that they were there. It is possible today, for the first time in the history of civilization, to call and to hold a conference to discuss not time-worn dogmas or even present-day needs, but future possibilities. From this point of view, such conferences must command the careful attention of the student of social development.

PARTY NOMINATIONS

FROM THE FRESNO REPUBLICAN

Discussing the registration, the San Francisco Chronicle shows its characteristic ignorance of the election law. The Chronicle says: "Nobody can be made the official candidate for two parties who does not lead the ticket of both parties and no one can be an official candidate at the primary except a member of the party on which his name appears. To expect Republican voters to write in the names of Progressive candidates in such numbers as to carry the election is impossible." We do not know of any movement to run the candidates for the major offices on more than one ticket. But in these days of partisan independence, especially as to minor offices, there is no doubt at all that many of the candidates for the minor state offices as well as many candidates for the legislature will aspire to and receive the nominations of two and sometimes three parties. This has always been done in the case of some candidates for local and legislative offices. But those who desired to vote to give the candidate of another party the endorsement of their party have hitherto been under the handicap of having to write the names of the nominees of their choice. Even with this handicap double nominations have not been at all uncommon. State Controller Nye, for instance, at the last state election had both the Republican and the Democratic nominations, and four years ago, a considerable number of candidates for the legislature received the nominations of both the Republican and Democratic parties. In San Francisco, where there have always been three parties, it has been customary for the majority of the candidates for the legislature to receive the nominations of at least two of these parties and occasionally one candidate would be nominated by all three.

What the Chronicle is ignorant of is the fact that under the election law the physical handicap of writing in has been removed from this otherwise long-familiar procedure. Under the present law if a sufficient number of voters of the Republican party wish to give the endorsement of that party to some Democratic candidate they can, by presenting a legal petition to that effect, have the name of that candidate printed on the ballot so as to save them the trouble of writing it in. This can, of course, only happen in the case of a candidate having sufficiently numerous supporters in another party for his supporters to present a petition large enough to have made him a candidate if he were a member of that party. In all other cases the writing in process would still have to be resorted to. The Chronicle is mistaken, however, in saying that no one can be an official candidate at the primary except a member of the party on which his name appears. The only limit is that if a man is a candidate at the primary of his own party the law will probably be interpreted to compel him to stand or fall by his success or failure in obtaining that nomination. A Progressive candidate, for instance, running for the Progressive nomination and being also run by his friends for the Republican and Democratic nominations, could not be the Republican or Democratic candidate, even if he received the majority of the votes at the Republican and Democratic primaries, unless he had also received his nomination at the Progressive primaries. On the other hand, if he did receive the nomination of his own party, his success or failure in obtaining the endorsement of other parties would have no effect on that nomination. The law is not quite clear at this point, and has not been, so far as we know, officially interpreted. But this is the meaning put upon it by its author and generally accepted. If this interpretation should not be the correct one then the other one would be that any man could run or be run for any nomination he likes and would be the candidate of any party or parties at whose primaries he received the most votes.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Keep Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears. Just what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair. RESULTS TELL

There Can Be No Doubt About the Results in Santa Ana

E. C. Burdick, 918 E. Fifth St., Santa Ana, Cal., says: "My back was in such bad shape that I could hardly get up or down. At times when I moved, sharp pains darted through me. I was in pretty bad shape. The doctor tested the kidney secretions and told me that all my suffering was caused by poor kidney action. I first learned of Doan's Kidney Pills when I was living in Wichita, Kans. They were recommended to me by a druggist. That was six years ago, and I am confident that I wouldn't be here now to tell the story if it wasn't for the relief I got from Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them steadily for about a year and I have taken them off and on ever since. When I first used them, I had to go around on crutches, not daring to take either off the floor for fear of falling. Now I can get around with ease and my back is in good shape."

The early session was spent in trying to get a jury.

Bundy killed Ziesche on Christmas eve to get money to buy a present for a little girl.

IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY

Miss Henrietta Gowen Central Figure in Pretty Dinner Party Event

Among the pretty week-end parties was the dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowen at their Spurgeon street home Friday evening, January 23, in honor of the eighteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Henrietta Gowen. The event was in the nature of a 6 o'clock dinner of five courses and the dining room was made most attractive for the occasion. A striking feature of the decorations was a canopy of red paper ribbon intermingled with the graceful tendrils of smilax. The table was centered with poinsettias.

Naturally the piece de resistance of the repast was the big, beautiful birthday cake adorned with red candles, but the crowning feature was the good wishes given to the charming young woman who was toasted by each one present. Miss Henrietta gracefully responded to the felicitations that, with many charming gifts, were showered upon her.

The guests at the pleasant affair were relatives. Covers were laid for Mr. P. T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lamb and Little son, Mr. and Mrs. Cood Adams, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Gowen, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Adams and two little daughters, of Anaheim; the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gowen, and the honoree, Miss Henrietta Gowen.

Following the dinner, the evening was enjoyably spent in music, dancing and in witnessing indoor fireworks.

Birthdays Celebrated

The L. M. S. of the Reformed Presbyterian church planned a surprise on Mrs. L. A. Downie, one of their members, it being her birthday, and met at Mrs. Cathcart's Monday afternoon. From there they proceeded in a group to Mrs. Downie's home, she having been spirited away by her neighbor, Mrs. Getty, for the occasion. The afternoon was very pleasantly spent with music and conversation and after the delightful social time dainty refreshments were served, chief among which was a large birthday cake with candles. Mrs. Downie blew out the candles and cut the cake. A beautiful plate was presented to Mrs. Downie by the L. M. S.

Mrs. Tom Isley's and Baby Clifford Chestnut's birthdays were celebrated at the same time with birthday cakes and candles.

FOR ED VEGELY

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell Host and Hostess at Pleasant Birthday Surprise

A pleasant dinner in honor of Ed Vegely's birthday was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell on Friday evening last, the dinner being served at 6 o'clock. Mr. Vegely was called from his home and on walking into the dining room and finding the beautifully appointed table spread in his honor, he was completely surprised.

Table decorations were carried out in lavender, the centerpiece being a large birthday cake on which was the "right" number of candles. A beautiful stickpin was presented of Mr. Vegely by Mr. McIntyre, speaking in well chosen words in behalf of the assembled company. Mr. Vegely greatly appreciated the remembrance.

Those at the table were Mr. Vegely and his children, Constance and Bruce; Mrs. George Angle, Mr. and Mrs. Claude McIntyre, Mrs. Ida Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Campbell.

A waltz or two to make the event lively and the playing of "high five" for the rest of the evening completed a delightful event, which will linger pleasantly in the minds of those participating in it.

THIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

We are druggists right here in your town and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their particular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls," as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing strength and building up people who are run-down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble sometimes grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Revell Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy, when you are run-down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscle, good digestion. It contains Hypophosphites, which tone the nerves, and pure Olive Oil, which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. We promise that if you are not perfectly satisfied with it, we'll give back your money as soon as you tell us. Sold only at the $1,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00. Mateer's Drug Store, 104 West Fourth, Santa Ana.

ANNOUNCEMENT

—We wish to announce to the ladies of Santa Ana and vicinity that on Wednesday, January 28, we will open our new Manicuring and Hair Dressing Parlor. We have fitted up a parlor at the rear of our millinery store and have equipped it with every modern appliance for doing the best of all work in these lines. We have engaged Mrs. Longstreet of Los Angeles to take charge of the parlor. She is a lady who has had experience in the best parlors of Los Angeles and San Francisco and we can promise the best of satisfaction. The Misses Rutherford, 109 East Fourth street.

DRAMA ABROAD AND AT HOME

By Beau Rialto

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—A pretentious opening of the week was "Maria Rosa," a romantic drama, at the Thirty-ninth Street Theater, in which Dorothy Donnelly is supported by Lou Tellegen, the French actor who was associated with Sarah Bernhardt. Unnoticed, almost incognito, Tellegen slipped into this country early in the season. New York managers knew nothing of the actor's presence until he was on Broadway, looking for an engagement. Tellegen picked up English while he was touring America with Bernhardt on her two last visits here, and became so enamored with the land of the free and the home of the brave that Paris seemed tame by comparison when he returned to that dear France. With Miss Donnelly in "Maria Rosa," Tellegen is seen at what Americans consider his best.

Hungarian goulash. That's all that can be said for Henry W. Savage's "Sari" (pronounced "Sherry," by the way) at the Liberty. There is a little good Viennese music, a few catchy songs, a bewildering display of risqué Parisian costumes, a bit of novel scenery—and Mizzi Hajos. That's the sum total. The piece is utterly innocent of plot and its separate actions do not hang together at all, the ensemble being more like a light opera. That leads up to a natural query: Why is Mizzi Hajos?

The little Hungarian has a pleasing appearance, but a voice not above the average. By reason of her natural smallness and her grotesque movements she is comical. But as an opera star she has nothing to commend her. Small wonder that American girls with winning figures and faces, superb voices and real ability to act, are discouraged when Europeans with nothing but a burlesque-gait and unpronounceable names to recommend them come over here and command instant vogue and three-figure salaries. Miss Hajos is a likable person, with a few amusing antics, but that hardly accounts for her starring in small shows and a vaudeville sketch during the current season. Before the 1913-14 era goes into the limbo of things that were, Miss Hajos may have a chance to increase her musical score.

Those who have seen the remarkably attractive setting of the second act of "Sari" were reminded forcibly of the illustrations used in the advertisements of the "John Walker" stores.

For a beginner in the pamphleteer's art, Johnson Forbes-Robertson, now winding up almost a half century's career on the stage with a farewell American tour, is remarkably comprehensive as well as modest. An article by him in a current magazine is the first he ever wrote for publication and appears under this pretentious caption: "The Theater of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." Forbes-Robertson says in the introduction: "I might preface my remarks on this subject by the statement that during my career of forty years on the stage, I have never previously contributed an article to a magazine or put my name to a book, which is something of a record in these days, when every man is his own Boswell."

At last it has come—the actor's union. Under the name of the Actors' Equity Association, some of the leading thespians of Broadway have organized for mutual protection, and they are weekly embracing within their ranks the leading players of America, both men and women. The stage hands organized themselves into the Theatrical Mechanics' Association and by sheer numbers obtained improved conditions for themselves. They got more pay and less work. The vaudeville performers formed themselves into an amalgamation known as the White Rats and thereby won betterments for themselves in the shape of transportation, more stable contracts, more efficient stage assistance from the theaters and other improvements. Now the legitimate actors have formed an association for the purpose of insisting on their rights. Francis Wilson is the president of the new organization. Henry Miller, who is, not, is—have it your own way—going to retire, is vice-president; Bruce McRae and Howard Kyle, secretaries, and Howard Purdy, treasurer. George Arliss, Digby Dell, Jefferson Mackaye and such well known actors form the council of the association. Here are a few things that the Actors' Equity Association will work for:

Transportation for actors from New York when they join a road company out of town and transportation back to New York when the show strands or the actor is given his notice. To limit the period of free rehearsals. To re-establish the two weeks' notice clause. To protect an actor who shall be given more than a week's rehearsal from being discharged without compensation. To prevent the increase of extra performances without pay. To get full pay for all weeks played. To seek an adjustment with regard to the cost of woman's costumes. These are reasonable demands, say the actors. As matters now stand, actors frequently are engaged in New York to go west, perhaps so far as the coast, to join a show. They are given their fare to the point where they join, but when they close, they have to pay their own fare back to New York. Often they have not the money. The traditional two weeks' notice is often overlooked by the managers, but the players are never allowed to ignore it. Actors now rehearse indefinitely without pay, and if the production fails in the first week, the performers get no pay.

DRUGS EXCITE YOUR KIDNEYS, USE SALTS

If Your Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers, Drink Lots of Water

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
BROWNE'S BILL
IS ORDERED
PAID

Three Supervisors Vote Aye, and Two No on Motion to Pass It

SUIT AUTHORIZED
AGAINST BONDSMEN

Wilson Continued as Expositions
Commissioner at $40 a Month

This afternoon by a vote of three to two the Board of Supervisors ordered that the $447.75 bill of Samuel Browne for detective services during the investigation of charges of illegal registration at Anaheim, be paid.

This ends a tempest that was caused by the bill. During the campaign at Anaheim over the saloon information was brought to District Attorney West that numerous illegal registrations had been made. The district attorney in his judgment considered a thorough investigation necessary, and he employed Samuel Browne to make the investigation. Browne's bill was approved by Supervisor Struck, and went to the auditor. Auditor Lester held it up, and the bill went back to the supervisors. Supervisor Struck and Auditor Lester reported that they thought it unreasonable.

At a previous meeting of the board District Attorney West contended that conditions were such that he considered the detective work very necessary, and he had ordered it.

This morning a hearing was had, and this afternoon the bill was ordered paid. Smith, Struck and Talbert voting aye, and Leck and Schumacher no. Leck said he was the last man to desire to hamper the district attorney, but in the case at hand he thought the bill larger than the occasion called for.

County Clerk Williams read a protest against the payment of the bill. The statement of the remonstrance was that the expenses were incurred entirely in the interests of one faction in a factional fight at Anaheim. Those signing the protest were: Geo. W. Hamler, G. M. Simpson, H. A. Dickel, J. W. Sackett, J. H. Cook, W. H. Honts, Alphon Thomas, J. E. Valjean, H. E. Strouthoff, G. J. Stock, Jacob Wittmer, John Ziegler, Frank Shanley, Alexander Henry, John Hartung, H. Rachel, John Schumacher, Jr., L. W. Bushard, J. E. Fisher, George Weatherby, Ray Fisher, Carl Vanatta, E. Bayha, W. J. Wickersheim, G. Roscoe, E. Johnson, R. T. Davies, C. A. Boardway, T. E. Copp, C. O. Rust, Peter D. Hax, A. V. Vail, John M. Henry.

Attorney Byron Hanna of Los Angeles spoke for the protest, saying that county officers should have been employed instead of outside detectives.

Attorney R. Y. Williams, representing Detective Browne, said that the charge was a reasonable one, and the usual charge for good detective work.

"You should look at this from the standpoint of the general good that investigation did," said Attorney Williams. "It made people careful about registering and it will have a good effect in coming elections throughout the county. It was a good method of enforcing the law. The tendency of the district attorney in this case was to purge the rolls, not merely to send men to the penitentiary. The record of the district attorney has been good, and his actions in office certainly warrant you in giving your stamp of approval to his judgment in this matter."

Hanna contended that the district attorney should always go to the supervisors and ask permission to spend money to hire detectives.

District Attorney West declared such a rule would be a great handicap to his office. Suppose a crime was committed the day after the board adjourned for two weeks. The district attorney would have his hands tied behind his back until the board met. The ends of justice demand freedom of action on the part of the district attorney. West said there were limits, and that was the bounds of reason. If the theory advanced by Hanna was adhered to, West said he might as well quit trying to get evidence.

To Begin Digging
The board granted the petition of the Southern California Gas Co. for a permit to commence excavating in the La Habra road district for laying an eight-inch gas main. A franchise was secured for this work some time ago. The company is going to pipe natural gas from the Orange county oil fields.

The ordinance granting a water pipeline franchise to A. S. Bradford at Placentia was passed today.

Licenses as fumigators were granted to John A. King of Orange and Walter McClurg of El Modena.

Suit Is Authorized
On the request of District Attorney West, the supervisors ordered that suit be brought against W. P. Webb and Frank Machleb, both of Anaheim, for $5000. Those two men were bondsmen for Herbert Dyer, charged with felony. Dyer disappeared, and Justice Cox ordered his bond forfeited.

Wilson Is Named
W. W. Wilson of East Newport was reappointed commissioner representing this county on the Southern California Expositions Commission. Wilson is paid $40 a month.

J. N. Anderson is Again Appointed Inheritance Tax Appraiser

The $50,000 bonds of the Tustin school district have been given legal approval by the attorneys for Wm. R. Staats Co. of Los Angeles. That means that the district will get its money in a very short time. The bonds must be printed and signed, and the money will then be paid into the county treasury.

County Clerk Williams received word from the Staats company today stating that the attorneys had looked over the abstract of the bonds and had found the proceedings of the Board of Supervisors correct.

Tustin voted these bonds several months ago, but owing to the tight money market the bonds could not be sold. The district will erect a new schoolhouse.

Appointed Again
John N. Anderson has been appointed inheritance tax appraiser by State Controller Chambers. Anderson was originally appointed in July, 1911, by State Controller Nye. Nye died a few months ago, and Chambers was appointed to the position of state controller. The question arose as to whether or not the appointments made by Nye held good under Chambers. To make certain that they did, Chambers decided to issue new appointments. Anderson's appointment arrived yesterday and was filed with the county clerk. J. G. Quick is substitute for Anderson.

One inheritance tax appraiser must appear as an appraiser in each estate probated in order that he may look after the inheritance taxes due the state. The pay allowed is $5 a day.

The estate consists of twelve acres on North Main street outside the city limits, valued at $200,000, and under the will is left to the widow, John Johnston.

IN THE JUSTICE'S COURT DISTURBANCE CASES ARE BOTH DISMISSED

Former City Marshal and His Son No Longer Defendants in Court

Today on the motion of the district attorney's office, Justice Cox dismissed two disturbance charges, one against Ex-City Marshal E. L. Vincent of Huntington Beach and the other against Vincent's son, Raleigh. The arrests were a part of a recent upheaval at the beach city. A former city trustee, D. O. Stewart, was arrested by the then city marshal, and Satward and the marshal and his son arrested. Since then Vincent has resided as an official of the beach town.

Wants to Run
W. C. Mason, who says he lived in this section years ago, did not want to go to jail this morning, but he lacked $10, and had to go. He was arrested last night by Officers Ryan and Murray while creating a disturbance. Mason declared he was going to run for sheriff and after he was elected he would proceed to arrest the city police. In Justice Cox's court this morning Mason said he just finished a thirty-day term in the county jail last Saturday from Anaheim, and he did not want to go back there again. But back he went.

U. S. CONTINUES TO "WATCH AND WAIT"

Same Policy Applied to Haytian Situation as Used in Mexican Affairs

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—In the absence of Secretary Bryan from Washington today no change was made in the "watchful waiting" policy which has been applied to the Haytian situation as well as to the Mexican problem.

The rebels have not been checked and have added the important coast town of Gonaves to the places in their possessions. The Eagle, which is on survey duty in Haytian waters, has been sent to Gonaves to afford any necessary protection to American interests.

The leader of the movement, Senor Davetmar Theodore, is now at Cape Haytien at the head of his forces. He has announced publicly that he is the chief of the revolution in the north and as such promises to preserve order and protect all non-combatants and their property in the region controlled by the rebels.

The gunboat Nashville is at Cape Haytien, while the armored cruiser Montana is supposed to have arrived at Port au Prince, the capital city. There have not been any disorders at Port au Prince yet, though trouble is feared if the citizens learn of the rebel successes in the north.
